

JoyBOnline Affiliate Disclosure

Trusted Links. Transparent Recommendations.

Our Commitment to Transparency

JoyBOnline believes in being open and transparent with visitors. Some links on JoyBOnline are affiliate links. This means JoyBOnline may earn a commission if you click an affiliate link and make a qualifying purchase, at no additional cost to you.

How Affiliate Links Work

Affiliate links may direct you to a brand, retailer, travel provider, or other third-party website. If you choose to make a purchase or booking through one of these links, JoyBOnline may receive compensation from the merchant or affiliate program.

Our Recommendations

JoyBOnline features products, services, travel resources, lifestyle finds, and other information that may be useful to our audience. Affiliate relationships do not change our commitment to presenting recommendations and promotional content transparently.

Third-Party Purchases and Security

Purchases and bookings are completed on the applicable merchant or service provider's website, not directly through JoyBOnline unless clearly stated otherwise. Each third-party website is responsible for its own security, privacy practices, payment processing, pricing, shipping, returns, cancellations, and other terms. Visitors should review the merchant's policies before completing a transaction.

Prices and Availability

Product prices, promotions, availability, travel rates, and other offers can change without notice. JoyBOnline cannot guarantee that information displayed by a third-party merchant will remain unchanged after it is shared or linked.

Your Choice

Using an affiliate link is always your choice. You are not required to purchase any product or service featured on JoyBOnline. We encourage visitors to consider their own needs, review product or service details, and make purchasing decisions that are right for them.
